

CHÂTEAU SAINT GALIER

(Graves)

*R*ed Graves are quintessential Bordeaux wines. And when they're good, Bordeaux like this unite (better than any other wine) complementary features such as earth and fruit, sturdiness and subtlety, elegance and power. This classic example hints of juicy dark red plums, spices, leather and wet stones — it's quite dry, firm, rather serious. And really lovely with a leg of lamb.