

CHÂTEAU VILLERAMBERT-JULIEN

(Minervois)

With 60% Syrah, it could be a forbidding wine, but its inky black color belies its approachability. Careful vinification and judicious blending with Grenache produces a sophisticated and balanced glass. Layers of dark fruit and thyme-scented garrigue are held in a silken net of tannins.

The whole is concentrated but graceful
- a triumph of good taste.