

CHÂTEAU FERRAN

(Péssac-Léognan)

Red Graves are quintessential French wines. And when they're good, Bordeaux like this unite (better than any other wine) such complementary features as earth and fruit, sturdiness and subtlety, elegance and power. This classic example hints of juicy dark red plums, spices, leather and wet stones — it's quite dry, firm, rather serious. But really lovely with a leg of lamb.

CHÂTEAU FERRAN

(Péssac-Léognan)

Red Graves are quintessential French wines. And when they're good, Bordeaux like this unite (better than any other wine) such complementary features as earth and fruit, sturdiness and subtlety, elegance and power. This classic example hints of juicy dark red plums, spices, leather and wet stones — it's quite dry, firm, rather serious. But really lovely with a leg of lamb.

CHÂTEAU FERRAN

(Péssac-Léognan)

Red Graves are quintessential French wines. And when they're good, Bordeaux like this unite (better than any other wine) such complementary features as earth and fruit, sturdiness and subtlety, elegance and power. This classic example hints of juicy dark red plums, spices, leather and wet stones — it's quite dry, firm, rather serious. But really lovely with a leg of lamb.

CHÂTEAU FERRAN

(Péssac-Léognan)

Red Graves are quintessential French wines. And when they're good, Bordeaux like this unite (better than any other wine) such complementary features as earth and fruit, sturdiness and subtlety, elegance and power. This classic example hints of juicy dark red plums, spices, leather and wet stones — it's quite dry, firm, rather serious. But really lovely with a leg of lamb.