

CHÂTEAU LE LUCAT

(Bordeaux)

Voluptuous Merlot makes up over two thirds of this wine: round and generous, it is barely held in check by its more austere partners, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. Rich chocolate and cherry notes meet bramble and cassis on the palate, giving way to a long and harmonious finish. Still very French, it shows how much has been learned from the Californians over the past few years.