

CHÂTEAU TOUR DE MIRAMBEAU

(Bordeaux Supérieur)

Long known for its excellent white wines, this chateau is now gaining recognition for its supple and delicious reds. The Revue de Vin de France, the country's most prestigious wine publication, has this to say:

“Very generous wines expressing ripe fruit and round tannins, enhanced with a sometimes bold but always judicious elevage (cellaring).”