

CHÂTEAU ROBIN

(Côtes de Castillon)

Not only is the Chateau Robin
Cotes de Castillon
one handsome wine

to behold, it's a stand-up, no-nonsense, old-guard Bordeaux with character to spare. Concentrated dark fruits, with some mint, camphor, and bitter chocolate aromas; dryish, lean, firm, serious, a tad tight. Lovely with a leg of lamb.

— Stephen Meuse, Boston Globe

CHÂTEAU ROBIN

(Côtes de Castillon)

Not only is the Chateau Robin
Cotes de Castillon
one handsome wine

to behold, it's a stand-up, no-nonsense, old-guard Bordeaux with character to spare. Concentrated dark fruits, with some mint, camphor, and bitter chocolate aromas; dryish, lean, firm, serious, a tad tight. Lovely with a leg of lamb.

— Stephen Meuse, Boston Globe

CHÂTEAU ROBIN

(Côtes de Castillon)

Not only is the Chateau Robin
Cotes de Castillon
one handsome wine

to behold, it's a stand-up, no-nonsense, old-guard Bordeaux with character to spare. Concentrated dark fruits, with some mint, camphor, and bitter chocolate aromas; dryish, lean, firm, serious, a tad tight. Lovely with a leg of lamb.

— Stephen Meuse, Boston Globe

CHÂTEAU ROBIN

(Côtes de Castillon)

Not only is the Chateau Robin
Cotes de Castillon
one handsome wine

to behold, it's a stand-up, no-nonsense, old-guard Bordeaux with character to spare. Concentrated dark fruits, with some mint, camphor, and bitter chocolate aromas; dryish, lean, firm, serious, a tad tight. Lovely with a leg of lamb.

— Stephen Meuse, Boston Globe