

ERIK BANTI
POGGIO MAESTRINO
'Annoquarto'

(Rosso Toscano IGT)

Over the past thirty years Erik Banti has helped transform his corner of Italy. The Maremma, on the southwestern coast of Tuscany, was better known for its cowboys than its wine. Erik introduced high-quality wine-making, resulting in a new DOC. Today he continues his innovation with a remarkable blend of 80% Sangiovese and 20% Merlot. Supple and rich, it boasts ripe blueberry and cherry fruit with subtle vanilla and smoke tones.
