

SAVIGNOLA PAOLINA

(Chianti Classico)

Carlo Fabbri renamed this property, in his family since 1780, after his aunt Paolina, whose dedication to its renewal impressed him as a boy. Now his daughter Ludovica makes the wine, building on their accomplishments. Of course, there are many interpretations of Chianti, even within the largest and most famous district, Chianti Classico. At Savignola, the methods are rigorous and yet mostly traditional, in the vineyard and the cellar, where a year and a half in large old casks gently mellows the wines. You'll be rewarded with tasty flavors that solidly anchor the enticing aromas and lightly velvet texture of this dry red wine, so don't miss the chance to open a bottle with your next dinner!