

MAS DE GOURGONNIER

(Les Baux de Provence)

---

Nestled in a tiny valley at the base of a famous range of steep and craggy hills, this is a typical Provençal family farm — but one which produces unusually fine wine. This year's version is better than ever: dark purple color, a bouquet of sun-baked pine forest and wild thyme, and smooth flavors of ripe red fruits. Try with dishes of lamb and lots of rosemary and garlic, or vegetable dishes like ratatouille.
