

Domaine Saladin PAUL

Côtes du Rhône

It would be hard to exaggerate how good this wine is. Finely etched red fruit, a detailed progression of flavors and a magical finish. The mouth is silky and pure, and the sense of place simply and wonderfully present. It's organic too, but that's hardly the point. Two young sisters, Marie-Laurence and Elisabeth Saladin, are making the best Côtes du Rhône we've ever tasted. A fresh face for an estate that's been in the family since 1422! 90% Grenache noir, 10% Clairette.

Domaine Saladin PAUL

Côtes du Rhône

It would be hard to exaggerate how good this wine is. Finely etched red fruit, a detailed progression of flavors and a magical finish. The mouth is silky and pure, and the sense of place simply and wonderfully present. It's organic too, but that's hardly the point. Two young sisters, Marie-Laurence and Elisabeth Saladin, are making the best Côtes du Rhône we've ever tasted. A fresh face for an estate that's been in the family since 1422! 90% Grenache noir, 10% Clairette.

Domaine Saladin PAUL

Côtes du Rhône

It would be hard to exaggerate how good this wine is. Finely etched red fruit, a detailed progression of flavors and a magical finish. The mouth is silky and pure, and the sense of place simply and wonderfully present. It's organic too, but that's hardly the point. Two young sisters, Marie-Laurence and Elisabeth Saladin, are making the best Côtes du Rhône we've ever tasted. A fresh face for an estate that's been in the family since 1422! 90% Grenache noir, 10% Clairette.

Domaine Saladin PAUL

Côtes du Rhône

It would be hard to exaggerate how good this wine is. Finely etched red fruit, a detailed progression of flavors and a magical finish. The mouth is silky and pure, and the sense of place simply and wonderfully present. It's organic too, but that's hardly the point. Two young sisters, Marie-Laurence and Elisabeth Saladin, are making the best Côtes du Rhône we've ever tasted. A fresh face for an estate that's been in the family since 1422! 90% Grenache noir, 10% Clairette.