

VILLA DI VETRICE

CHIANTI RUFINA

In a blind tasting of Chianti for the Wall Street Journal the Vetrice was one of the top four picks: “This tastes more expensive, with layers of fruit and wood and some guts, but it’s also easy to drink.” We love its classic bouquet of cherries and dried fruit, and find it is a wine we can pour generously. Reflecting its origins in the cool hills of Rufina, the wine is above all balanced and refreshing.
