CHABLIS 'CUVEE DE LA BUTTE'

Ripe, round and rich? Not what you'd expect from a Chablis, but you won't be disappointed. Easily mistaken for one of its more famous cousins from the Cote de Beaune, this wine gives and gives, then gives some more. Apple and pear fruit are folded into a nutty, creamy texture. The balance and liveliness are Chablisien, but the fruit speaks of Chassagne. Delicious.
