

Jo LANDRON
LA LOUVETRIE
MUSCADET DE SÈVRE ET MAINE

As France's longest river, the Loire, enters the Atlantic, it is surrounded by vineyards planted to the Muscadet grape. This a broad country of gently rolling terrain, resembling a calm summer day on the nearby ocean, and the local wine's crisp and bright character has become quite well-known. The bounty provided by the sea, for which the coast of Brittany is so famous, marries perfectly with this clean, light, lovely and very dry white wine...