

MARC MOREY

(Chassagne-Montrachet)

This being Burgundy, there are no less than three Morey domaines in Chassagne-Montrachet. This is the most famous of them, and one of the best addresses in the Cote de Beaune. In the deep cellars under their magnificent house in the village, a former coaching inn, Marc Morey's daughter and her husband, Bernard Mollard craft impeccable white Burgundies. Ranging from an Aligote and simple Bourgogne to the rarest appellations, every wine is as true to terroir as possible. Their character is mineral and crystalline, with the grander appellations receiving a richer wood treatment.

MARC MOREY

(Chassagne-Montrachet)

This being Burgundy, there are no less than three Morey domaines in Chassagne-Montrachet. This is the most famous of them, and one of the best addresses in the Cote de Beaune. In the deep cellars under their magnificent house in the village, a former coaching inn, Marc Morey's daughter and her husband, Bernard Mollard craft impeccable white Burgundies. Ranging from an Aligote and simple Bourgogne to the rarest appellations, every wine is as true to terroir as possible. Their character is mineral and crystalline, with the grander appellations receiving a richer wood treatment.

MARC MOREY

(Chassagne-Montrachet)

This being Burgundy, there are no less than three Morey domaines in Chassagne-Montrachet. This is the most famous of them, and one of the best addresses in the Cote de Beaune. In the deep cellars under their magnificent house in the village, a former coaching inn, Marc Morey's daughter and her husband, Bernard Mollard craft impeccable white Burgundies. Ranging from an Aligote and simple Bourgogne to the rarest appellations, every wine is as true to terroir as possible. Their character is mineral and crystalline, with the grander appellations receiving a richer wood treatment.

MARC MOREY

(Chassagne-Montrachet)

This being Burgundy, there are no less than three Morey domaines in Chassagne-Montrachet. This is the most famous of them, and one of the best addresses in the Cote de Beaune. In the deep cellars under their magnificent house in the village, a former coaching inn, Marc Morey's daughter and her husband, Bernard Mollard craft impeccable white Burgundies. Ranging from an Aligote and simple Bourgogne to the rarest appellations, every wine is as true to terroir as possible. Their character is mineral and crystalline, with the grander appellations receiving a richer wood treatment.