

CHÂTEAU DE PIBARNON ROSÉ

(Bandol)

This is the acme, the pinnacle, the nonpareil, the zenith and quintessence of Provençal rosé. And quite possibly a wine you might enjoy. No it's not Château Latour. Just a pink wine that refreshes the parts that other wines can't reach. Full of raspberry, strawberry and garrigue-scented fruit it finishes dry and long. For the geeks, it is made from a blending of 50 % Mourvèdre, and 50 % pressed Cinsault, grown on steep hillsides of limestone.
