

CHATEAU DU HUREAU SAUMUR-CHAMPIGNY

“Hureau” is a good name for this chateau: it means “old wild boar”. And their wines do indeed have a regal wildness to them, coming from vines up to 70 years old. Here on the chalky soil of the Loire valley Cabernet Franc gives a fresh mineral wine with a brambly richness and supple tannins. The estate has been all organic since 2007.

CHATEAU DU HUREAU SAUMUR-CHAMPIGNY

“Hureau” is a good name for this chateau: it means “old wild boar”. And their wines do indeed have a regal wildness to them, coming from vines up to 70 years old. Here on the chalky soil of the Loire valley Cabernet Franc gives a fresh mineral wine with a brambly richness and supple tannins. The estate has been all organic since 2007.

CHATEAU DU HUREAU SAUMUR-CHAMPIGNY

“Hureau” is a good name for this chateau: it means “old wild boar”. And their wines do indeed have a regal wildness to them, coming from vines up to 70 years old. Here on the chalky soil of the Loire valley Cabernet Franc gives a fresh mineral wine with a brambly richness and supple tannins. The estate has been all organic since 2007.

CHATEAU DU HUREAU SAUMUR-CHAMPIGNY

“Hureau” is a good name for this chateau: it means “old wild boar”. And their wines do indeed have a regal wildness to them, coming from vines up to 70 years old. Here on the chalky soil of the Loire valley Cabernet Franc gives a fresh mineral wine with a brambly richness and supple tannins. The estate has been all organic since 2007.