

MAS DE GOURGONNIER ROSÉ

Les Baux de Provence

At the farm (mas) of Gourgonnier, in the favoured microclimate of Les Baux, the Cartier family grows olives, apricots and grapes, all completely organically. Besides toothsome reds, they make a rosé. Provençal rosé is perhaps the quintessence of rosé wine and the Gourgonnier is a perfect example with its lively freshness, orange-blossom bouquet and wonderful tangy wild strawberry fruit. Dry, and absolutely perfect with food.
