

Domaine Saladin LOÏ

Côtes du Rhône

We'll try not to over-do the breathiness, but this is the most exciting winery we've come across in a long time. Run by two young sisters, Marie-Laurence and Elisabeth, Domaine Saladin is an organic winery perched at the mouth of the Ardeche gorges. The estate has been in the family since at least 1422. The wines are precise and mineral, with a staggeringly pure expression of fruit. Mainly red and white Grenache, with a little Syrah and Carignan.

Domaine Saladin LOÏ

Côtes du Rhône

We'll try not to over-do the breathiness, but this is the most exciting winery we've come across in a long time. Run by two young sisters, Marie-Laurence and Elisabeth, Domaine Saladin is an organic winery perched at the mouth of the Ardeche gorges. The estate has been in the family since at least 1422. The wines are precise and mineral, with a staggeringly pure expression of fruit. Mainly red and white Grenache, with a little Syrah and Carignan.

Domaine Saladin LOÏ

Côtes du Rhône

We'll try not to over-do the breathiness, but this is the most exciting winery we've come across in a long time. Run by two young sisters, Marie-Laurence and Elisabeth, Domaine Saladin is an organic winery perched at the mouth of the Ardeche gorges. The estate has been in the family since at least 1422. The wines are precise and mineral, with a staggeringly pure expression of fruit. Mainly red and white Grenache, with a little Syrah and Carignan.

Domaine Saladin LOÏ

Côtes du Rhône

We'll try not to over-do the breathiness, but this is the most exciting winery we've come across in a long time. Run by two young sisters, Marie-Laurence and Elisabeth, Domaine Saladin is an organic winery perched at the mouth of the Ardeche gorges. The estate has been in the family since at least 1422. The wines are precise and mineral, with a staggeringly pure expression of fruit. Mainly red and white Grenache, with a little Syrah and Carignan.